

1909-026 Chancery Causes: Elizabeth Bowman vs. L. M. Bowman
Lee Co.

Oaks, Williams, Price

CA-Divorce
T-Vices

TO THE HON. H.A. W. SKEEN, JUDGE OF THE CIRCUIT COURT FOR LEE COUNTY, VIRGINIA:

Humbly complaining your oratrix Elizabeth Bowman, will respectfully represent and show unto your honor that heretofore to-wit, on the _____ day of _____, 190____, she was united in marriage with one L. M. Bowman; that she has made to the said Bowman a true, industrious and helpful wife, striving at all times for success and for the happiness of her family. But on the contrary her said husband has been lazy, indolent, not disposed to provide for the family and that he has been very abusive, teranical and over-bearing; that he has frequently assaulted her, beat and bruised her, and put her life in danger. That in addition thereto he has not been true to her, or to his marriage vows, but on the contrary he has been and is being guilty of open and gross adulterous conduct; that he is guilty and has been guilty at various times of adultery with one _____ ~~and~~ guilty of adultery in Lee County and in the neighborhood of Jonesville with one _____ Oaks, a woman of loose character. That she has never lived or co-habited with him since she became aware of the fact that he was guilty of infidelity and ludeness with the said _____ Oaks; that the conduct of the said L. M. Bowman is so violent that she is in actual fear of her life. That he in no way provides for her but spends all that he can get on the Oaks woman.

Your oratrix will now further show your honor that she and her husband are both residents of Lee County, Virginia, and have been such for more than one year prior to the institution of this suit.

Now the object of this bill is to dissolve the bonds of matrimony heretofore and now existing between your oratrix and the said L. M. Bowman, and being without adequate remedy at law she prays your honors court of Chancery to take cognizance of her cause and grant her the proper relief.

To this end she prays that the said L. M. Bowman be made the party defendant to this bill and that he be required to answer the same, but he need not answer under oath, that being expressly waived, and that upon a final hearing the bonds of matrimony heretofore and now existing between your oratrix and the said Bowman be dissolved, and for full and general relief.

Dec. 16, 1909,

The depositions of Lizzie Oaks and others taken before me, Geo. P. Cridlin, a Commissioner in Chancery for the Circuit Court of Lee County, at the law office of C. T. Duncan in the town of Jonesville on the 6th day of September, 1909, pursuant to agreement of parties, which depositions are intended to be read as evidence in behalf of the plaintiff in a certain suit in Chancery now pending in the said Circuit Court of Lee County, in which Elizabeth Bowman is plaintiff and L. M. Bowman is defendant.

Present C. T. Duncan of counsel for plaintiff; and the defendant in his own proper person; and M. G. Ely his attorney.

Lizzie Oaks, at witness of lawful age, being duly sworn deposes as follows:

Q. 1.-- Are you acquainted with the parties to this suit?

A.-- I am acquainted with them, and have known them for several years.

Q. 2.-- Do you know of any acts of adultery by L. M. Bowman, since his marriage with his said wife?

A.-- I do know of his being too intimate with another woman. I saw him with another woman. This was some two or three weeks ago. It was between our house and Jonesville and we live about two miles from Jonesville. They were in the woods. They were walking along side by side and kissing each other.

Q. 3.-- Who was this woman?

A.-- Mat Williams.

Q. 4.-- What is Mat Williams' reputation, if you know it?

A.-- Her reputation is that she is a very loose and lewd character.

Q. 5.-- Do you know of any other improper conduct on the part of Mr. Bowman, and his being too intimate with any other woman?

A.-- I don't know.

And further this deponent saith not.

A.-- I am acquainted with them and have been acquainted with them a right smart but,- several years.

C.2.- Do you know of any adulterous conduct on the part of L.M.
Bowman, within the last five years?

A.-- I saw him start of from my house with Mat Williams, who is a woman of bad character. They were going into the woods together.

~~And further this deponent saith not.~~

C.-- Do you know of any violent or threatening conduct of L.M. Bowman towards his wife?

A.-- I have heard him curse and abuse her, and on one occasion
I heard him say that if she came fooling around him, that he would cut her head off and hide her. I have heard him make that threat more than once.

C.-- Where do ~~thex~~ the plaintiff and defendant live?

A.-- They both live in Lee County. They were both born and raised here.
